CHURCH NOTES

Celebration of Easter-Day in the Episcopal and Catholic Churches.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES ELSEWHERE-BAP-TISMS AND ADDITIONS IN THE METHOD-IST AND BAPTIST CHURCHES-BISHOP DOGGETT'S CENTENNIAL ADDRESS-SUN-DAY-SCHOOL MEETING, &c., &c.

Easter, the queen of all the church festirals commemorating the resurrection of Christ from the tomb after his crucifixion and death, one of the greatest and most joyous of all days in the Christian Church, was appropriately celebrated in this city. The weather was clear and pleasant nearly all day, though at times the clouds were threatening. The churches of all denominations, but especially those of the Episcopal and Catholic, were very well attended. Easter is a favorite day with the ladies for several congregations, and the brightness By Mr. C. T. In the afternoon the pastor read the service and preached, and at the conclusion of the services the beautiful flowers were sent to the sick of the congregation, as is the usual custom.

> Large congregations were in attendance at St. Paul's church morning and night. There were no floral decorations of the sacred edifice. The pastor (Rev. Dr. Minnigerode) preached a most excellent sermon in the morning from Ephesians, fifth chapter and a portion of the fourth and fifth verses-"Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead." The music selected for the occasion was of a high order, and it was rendered throughout in fine style. Besides the regular quartette choir, there were ten singers in the choruses. Mr. Poindexter, the organist, presided in his usual masterly manner. At Grace church Rev. Kinloch Nelson read the service and preached upon the subject of the "Resurrection of the body." It was finished and powerful argument from a working and faithful pastor, and was greatly enjoyed by all who heard it. The music rendered at this church deserves special mention, and was probably not surpassed by any in the city. Few, perhaps, outside of the congregation are aware of the skill and taste displayed by the admirable young organist of this church, Miss Katie Mera, only sixteen years of age, but a thorough musician, supported by a carefullytrained choir, under the efficient directorship of Captain William A. Jenkins. Mrs.

E. C. Brown (a grand-daughter of Bishop Moore) is the soprano, Mrs. Jenkins alto, and Mr. E. S. Grant basso, at this church. Captain Jenkins, who is also the leader, deserves special credit for his persistent personal efforts to make the selections of music appropriate and church-like, and in keeping the choir by systematic work in thorough practice.

Miss Mera is really an artiste of great merit. From an instrument far from perfect she produces volume of sound and sweetness, with accompaniment rich and varied, and never a mistake in time or ex-

Rev. Edward Wall read the service, and Rev. Joshua Peterkin, D. D., preached from 19th chapter Job, 25th, 26th, and 27th verses. At night, in this church, there was an immense congregation present and many persons were turned away unable to get even standing room. Rev. Mr. Wall read the service and Bishop Whittle preached and confirmed twenty-seven persons-nineteen ladies and eight gentlemen.

At St. Mark's church in the morning Rev. Messrs. Berkeley and Kepler read the service, and the pastor, Rev. T. G. Dashiell, preached. In the afternoon the anniversary of the Sunday school took place, at which Mr. Dashiell delivered an address to the pupils.

CATHOLIC. To Catholics St. Peter's Cathedral was, of course, and with good reason, the principal point of attraction, for the Easter services at this church are always of the most impressive character, being more ceremonious than in any of the other Catholic churches. Large congregations attended the early or low masses, but at the half-past 10 o'clock services the crowds of worshippers from every part of the city that poured into the spacious edifice filled every pew and occupied all the available standing room. The main altar presented a most attractive sight on account of the profusion of the floral decorations and the many lighted tapers which illuminated the scene. the Cathedral in the afternoon, when Pontifical Vespers were celebrated. The ceremonies attending the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament were very impressive. At St. Mary's (German) church Solemn High Mass was celebrated at 10:30 A. M. by Rev. Father Herman Wolfe, with Rev. Fathers Benno and Erhardt as deacon and sub-deacon. The sermon was preached by Father Benno. The principal music conwas well sung by the choir.

At St. Patrick's church, the services were also of that impressive and joyous character which marks the festival in honor of the Resurrection. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Thomas Kelly, the pastor, who also delivered the sermon of the day. The music was unusually fine.
